

making every day's life extraordinary

Under development

Pimdesigned continues to give body to the product line. This results in surprising designs. This hallstand is an excellent example. Made in a unique shape and an invitation for your coats. Soon available at Pimdesigned.

Pimdesigned & TV

Pimdesigned is back from a successful visit to New York. The city full of energy and chances, the city that never sleeps. Great appointments are made and exciting developments will follow. Want to know more? Everything is documented by the camera and soon broadcasted on Dutch TV.

New product

A new chair is finished, a functional and approachable design. Made of massive beech wood and coated with an American nut finish. The chair for relax seating. Funny, pure and powerful!

Pim's vision

"With in our living environment, nature is going to play a big role. Designers of fashion, interior, fabrics and accessories are starting to work massively with nature. And Pimdesigned? I do not know any better. For me it is a logical step to work with natural materials, it is as normal as breathing or walking, I just do it. Why? Because I can."

Think big and stay yourself

Website Pimdesigned

At this moment Pimdesigned works hard on the website. Besides the renewed www.Pimdesigned.nl we will also launch www.Pimdesigned.com. This version is specially designed for the American market. Both sides will be approachable, stylish and conveniently arranged, with new items to strengthen the perception. In the future an EU version of the website will be developed.

A very succesful Master Class

At the AOC in Enschede, Pimdesigned hosted a successful master class. The theme: Bridal design. The participants were challenged to see, feel and experience what different materials and techniques can do! A unique experience! This month master classes will be held in Ermelo and Almelo.
