

Making every day's life extraordinary

New product

These unique bowls are made of ceramic and available in white and black.

An interesting design that can be placed in several different ways.

Inspiration

A disadvantage of getting older is losing something we had very strongly as a child; no boundaries, jumping in the deep end, looking with simplicity, without thinking. Is this possible?

This is something I try to hold on to. Knowing that everything is possible, being able to enjoy and be surprised by what nature and life offer me. That's the best thing there is.

Jumping in the deep end without boundaries, dipping into inspiration.

Pim's visie

Spring is starting; nature brings us new energy and inspiration. A great moment to try new things, finding a rhythm that makes you happy. Fill this rhyme with a passion for everything you do, it will make you strong. Search and find what interest you, do this with passion and you will grow, grow in what you do. Living is like dancing, find the rhyme and it feels like you are floating.

Pimdesigned "Your Store"

For many florists, it is a difficult time. You are in a daily routine that is hard to break. It's easy to lose your strength and passion. Pimdesigned can help these florists.

Together we can look where your strength lays, regain your passion and translate this back to your store. Your store becomes your world again. A world your customers want to be part of. In three day we will go back to the essence of your store, your passion and your strength.

Pim van den Akker looks at your customers, your interior, your style, routing, lighting, sales etc. All these elements should match with you and what you represent.

Are you a florist? Does your store needs development? Did you lose your passion? Are you losing sales and your confidence? Then this is something for you; Pimdesigned "your store" Check www.pimdesigned.nl for more information or enquiries.
