Pim's Vision

Everybody is looking for confirmation, a shoulder pad that says, great, you are doing a wonderful job, what a nice person are you. These moments make you realize that you do not need to doubt, is just OK. I look for confirmation as well, is it right what I make; it is my feeling, my imagination and spirit. Expose yourself in the shape of floral art and design, pure, watch and wait for responses. With these expositions I want to take you into my world, I hope you like my world.
